KING CHARLES III CORONATION DAY

Enjoy the celebrations and the long weekend!

See you on Tuesday 9th May 2023 at 8.40am

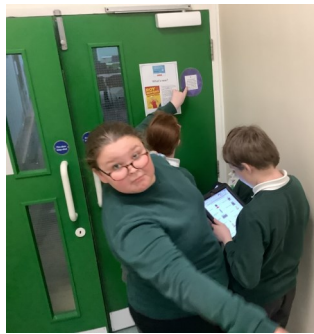

Coronation Great British Breakfast

This morning all students and staff joined together and we enjoyed a Great British Breakfast. It was a lovely atmosphere where we all ate and talked about the Coronation. After we had finished eating Mrs Ahearn gave a speech about where the British Breakfast originated from. The Full English breakfast or fry up dates back to the 1300s making it one of the longest standing traditional dishes in English history. This quintessentially English plate can be found just about in every kind of café, hotel and restaurant up and down the country and has even followed the English overseas as far as Spain. It was totally delicious and a fabulous way to start off the weekend celebrations!

Coronation Activity Morning

As well as enjoying their Great British Breakfast this morning, students have also completed some learning activities all about the Coronation. This is a moment in history and we want our students to understand what it is all about. Sessions included 'What is a Coronation?', 'What will happen on Coronation day?', Coronation Bingo, a collage activity, a 'Who's Who' of the Royal family for Key Stage 4, a scavenger hunt for Key Stage 3 and a quiz to end the morning.

King's Coronation

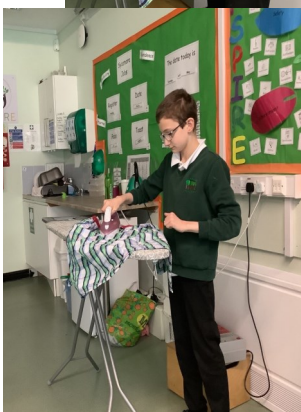

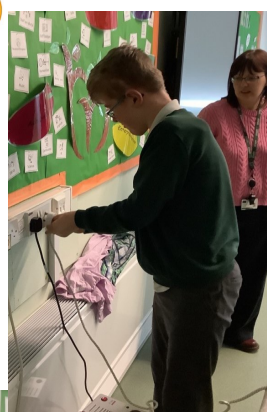

As we enter the Carolean era, which was previously associated with Charles II, which is derived from Carolus, the Latin for Charles, all students and staff have been presented with a medal to commemorate the Coronation of King Charles III.

Life Skills with Sycamore Class

This week Sycamore class during their Life Skills lesson have been learning to safely plug in and use an iron.

Excellent job, Sycamore class.

Macbeth Workshops

Next Friday, 12th May, two actors will be coming into the Academy to lead workshops for Key Stage 3 students on Macbeth, which we studied last term. They will help students to further explore different characters and themes, possibly create their own prophecies and unpick a monologue from the tragedy. We're really looking forward to it – and that's just the staff!

Issue of the week

The week beginning 8th May we will be discussing the following Issue of the Week during tutor time.

Continue the conversation at home...

Is it okay to ban a book?

Who should decide if a book should be banned?

Should books have similar rules like TV, films and online video have?

Should there be different rules for accessing books based on your age?

Sora

Just a reminder about our amazing Sora online library. Students can access reading materials at home as well as at school – we can send you the login details again if you contact the school office.
